But little business was transacted at the city council Monday night, and an adjournment was taken to next Monday night. The board should get to having regular meetings, and begin to push things along.

Our aim is to make our saloon one of the best in town, and in order to do this every customer will be given just exactly what he wants and calls for and be treated with courtesy.

So far as we are aware, no one has quit reading the Commercial Appeal, the Republic, the Globe Democrat, or any of the large papers, because they were against prohibition. Oh, no; that is all right. But it is different with your small home paper—the paper that prints your birth notices and your funeral notices and serves you every week—that is the paper you must stop.

Your jug and mail order trade can now be supplied from Fred Morgan's Saloon, Hayti, Mo. The best goods at the best price. Business promptly attended to.

To the Public.

William York is the only person authorized to collect for and sell lots in Woodlawn Cemetery, and I will ask that all persons having purchased lots therein in the past year will call on Mr. York, who will receipt those who have not paid and prepare deeds for those who have paid for same.

R. G. Sandridge, Owner.
